After a long span of nearly 7 yrs. Of marriage, I have recently been blessed to be a father of my newly born baby girl. But, unfortunately she (about 1 yr. old) has been sick of serious heart problem since her birth. Hence, she needs a great parental care and she is about to be operated. Moreover, my mother is ailing from "Gout" owing to which she also needs help from the members of my family and my un-married sister is such type of person who lives on her own world giving no co-operation in the family due to her mental health problem. Now, I being the eldest son presently available at home have to strive these entire problems lying upon my shoulder. Considering all the facts above, I am kindly be allowed to be posted at CPF, Pallel which is nearest to my home town- Kakching (only 6 Kms away) so that I can execute my bounden office duty smoothly by extending my utmost heart-felt co-operation to my family at this risky and responsible moment of life.
